

AGENDA

CHUCKANUT BAY/EDGEMOOR MARINE SHORELINE LANDOWNER WORKSHOP

Dec. 4, 2004 8:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m.

Fairhaven Library

Optional field trip to Woodstock Farm, noon-2 p.m.

- Introductions (8:30-8:45 a.m.) Hilary Culverwell, Puget Sound Action Team
- Marine shoreline/Chuckanut Bay geology (8:45-9:25 a.m.) Chris Fairbanks, Fairbanks Environmental Consulting
 - How did Puget Sound's shorelines (including Chuckanut Bay) form?
 - How have we impacted our shorelines?
- Wildlife in Puget Sound and Chuckanut Bay (9:25-10:00 a.m.) (Doug Stark, Whatcom County Water Resources)
 - Who lives here and how are they doing? (special focus on rockfish, crab, shellfish and birds)
- Shoreline Stewardship (10:00-11:25 a.m.)
 - Managing on-site sewage systems (15 min) Ed Halasz, Whatcom County Health Dept.
 - Impacts from mooring buoys (15 min)—JoAnn Gustafson, Washington State Department of Natural Resources
 - Stormwater impacts to marine waters; drainage management (15 min.) Hilary Culverwell, Puget Sound Action Team
 - Bay-friendly gardening and landscaping (15 min.) Bay Renaud, Plantas Nativa
 - People for Puget Sound's Shorewatch Program (10 min.) Mike Sato, People for Puget Sound
 - Shoreline Master Program updates and you (15 min.) Steve Sundin, City of Bellingham Planning Dept.; Jeff Chalfant, Whatcom County Planning and Development Services
- WRAP-UP (11:25-11:30 a.m.) Hilary Culverwell, Puget Sound Action Team

